

NESACS AT TANGLEWOOD!

Enjoy a beautiful day in the Berkshires! On Sunday, August 2nd, at 2:30 PM, NESACS members, family, and friends can listen to the Boston Symphony Orchestra performing in the sylvan setting of its summer home at Tanglewood in Lenox, Mass., in the heart of Berkshire County, less than three hours from Boston. Conducted by the Danish conductor, Thomas Dausgard, the program consists of Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 3, with the acclaimed Norwegian pianist, Leif Ove Andsnes; and Sergei Rachmaninoff's majestic Symphony No. 2. <http://www.tanglewood.org>

Prices are $18.00 for lawn tickets (free for people age 17 and under) and range from $18 to $89 for reserved seats in the Shed. Shed tickets are discounted 10 percent for groups of 25 or more.

For those who want to spend the day in what is arguably the most beautiful place in Massachusetts (if not the country, but he's biased), come early and gather at the home of Bob Lichter and Diane Scott-Lichter in nearby Alford before traveling 30 minutes to Tanglewood. The grounds open at noon, and it's a beautiful spot for a picnic!

To sign up, contact Marilou Cashman at the NESACS office: MCash0953@aol.com 1-800-872-2054 or 508-653-6329. Directions will be provided to participants.
