What percent of your total summer's effort will you spend on the supervision of this research project?

How many other researchers (undergraduates, graduate students, postdocs) will you be supervising this summer?

Please give a rough breakdown of the way you expect to spend the $500 "institutional" allowance (stipend for yourself, supplies, travel, etc.)

Please write a brief summary of the proposed project in terms of its relationship with your previous work and your future plans. How will you help your student co-worker to understand the interconnections of his/her work with your overall research plan and that of others?

Please email a completed and signed pdf version of this document no later than 5pm March 25th, 2022, to the Chair of the Selection Committee Prof. Jonathan Rochford (jonathan.rochford@umb.edu). We thank you for your cooperation, and for your active involvement in the research experience of your student. We wish you good luck with the project.

Your signature indicates your understanding that if your student is awarded a Summer Research Scholarship, she/he will submit a report of the project by November 1st, 2022 for publication in The Nucleus and she/he will present the work at the Northeast Student Research Conference of the Northeastern Section in April, 2023.
